

Accommodation in Stockholm

Dear WISTA International Conference and AGM 2011 participant: We at WISTA Sweden have made reservations at three fine hotels at different price levels, all in the vicinity of the main conference venue Scandic Hasselbacken.

The following pages contains the information you need to make your choice and book a room. If you want more information about the hotels, follow the web links.

Please note that there are specific instructions for booking your stay at each hotel. The WISTA room rates are fixed in Swedish kronor, so please check current exchange rates to get the exact price in Euro. Conference participants are of course free to arrange accommodation at any place of their choice.

We hope you will enjoy your stay in Stockholm immensely!

The map shows the three hotels (red) and the three conference venues (blue). For detailed map and directions, please go to <http://maps.google.com>

Simple but nice rooms, the blessing of Queen Victoria and no distance at all to WISTA party spot Wallmans.

Drottning Victorias Örlogshem

Drottning Victorias Örlogshem is situated right beside Wallmans Salonger, where the WISTA Conference farewell party on Friday night will take place. This is the simpler alternative, but friendly and tidy. Here you can stay up to three people in the same room and save a lot of money while getting good company!

It was founded in 1908 by Queen Victoria (wife of King Gustaf V Adolf) with the purpose to give young sailors of the Royal Swedish Navy the opportunity to stay on land when visiting Stockholm. And at a very friendly price too. Örlogshemmet has over the years become increasingly popular, not only among military personnel. Although most of the guests work for, or are guests to, the Swedish Defence.

Lush surroundings, beautiful rooms with care for details in a historic building.

Hotel Skeppsholmen

Hotel Skeppsholmen is the exclusive alternative for conference participants. From there, the fastest way to get to the main conference venue Scandic Hasselbacken is to take the Djurgården ferry, a trip of a minute or two, and walk for 5–6 minutes from the jetty.

Stockholm's new urban oasis: In the very heart of the city centre, in a building from 1699 with modern decoration by Stockholm based architects Claesson Koivisto Rune, a new lifestyle hotel has been opened. Situated on the waterfront and surrounded by beautiful nature and captivating culture, Hotel Skeppsholmen is a place to recharge your batteries, at a quiet, yet central location. The hotel is also eco-labelled.
